SUITS AGAINST THE CITY

Pleas and Sentences in Oyer and Terminer.

In the Court of Over and Terminer vesterda three persons entered pleas of guilty and received sentences. As there were no cases ready for trial the Court decided to adjourn until Friday, when

In the case of E. Herting vs. Collector Arthur gried in the United States Circuit, before Judge Wallace, in which the former sought to recover duties paid by him under protest on an importation of sausages, claimed to be exempt from duty under the act of June, 1872, as dry sausages, and to turned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for th amount claimed, $2,000. Gustave W. Ball was resterday held by Commis sloner Osborn in $10,000 to await examination of goods imported into the United States with the intent of defrauding the revenue.

THEATRICAL LICENSES.

The subject of the payment of theatrical licenses the courts. Mr. William B. Freiigh, of the Rowery Theatre, is still in a mixed condition on this question. In May last he paid to the Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents, the prosecutor in all these license cases, $250, one-half or the license, with the understanding that he would pay the balance at the end of six months. Meantime the Supreme Court, Chambers, declared the act under which the license lees are exacted unconstitutions). Relying on this decision Mr. Fre igh refused to make any further payment, and, therefore, a suit was commenced in the Superior Court to recover $2,000 penalties. Pending this the decision of the lower Court and declared the referred to constitutional. Upon this Mr. Freligh tendered the balance license fee, but the counsel on the other side freense fee, but the counsel on the other side refused to accept it unless he paid in addition $75 counsel fee and $103 costs. An injunction was then obtained against him, and yesterday motion was made in Supreme Court, Chambers, before Judge Donohue, to dissolve this injunction on payment of $250, the balance of the iteense fee. After a trief discussion of the case Judge Donohue took the papers, reserving his decision.

Hardiy had the above matter been disposed of when application was made on behalf of the Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents for an injunction against Samuel Shapter, Joan S.

ciety for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents for an injunction against Samuel shapter, Joan S. Fero. Manning and harry Hart, proprietors of the Metropolitan Theatre, restraining them from giving any performance at their theatre until they have paid their license. A temporary injunction was granted, and the usual bond given. The next step in the programme doubtless will be either to pay their license or move for a dissolution of the injunction.

SUITS AGAINST THE CITY.

The Supreme Court, General Term, Judges Davis, Brady and Daniels on the bench, was mainly occupied yesterday in hearing arguments on appeal in two suits against the city. The first of these suits, in which Jacob voorms is planting to recover payment for rock excavated on First to recover payment for rock excavated on First treets, there being a difference of 36,409 yards beveen the amount he claims and that allowed by e City Surveyor. Mr. John E. Develin, who apeared for the plaintiff, submitted facts and figures which, he insisted, showed conclusively that Mr. mount of rock alleged by him to have been ex The opposing counsel, Mr. Dean, tried to make the figures show a different conclusion, and at the close of the argument the Court took the

The second case argued is the suit brought by the Bowery National Bank against the city as assignee of the Hunnan Wood-Preserved Pavement ompany. The suit growing out of a contract for paving 128th street, and for which $65,860 40, being paving 128th street, and for which $65,860 40, being 10 per cent of the contract price, has already been paid. The present suit is to recover payment of $19,758 12, onlance suit claimed to be due. The contract required the Water Purveyor to give a certificate before the final payment. In January, 1871, the property owners commenced a suit to restrain the laying of the pavement or confirming any assessment for the work, and an injunction was pranted to this effect. The Water Purveyor ceiused to give a final certificate, on the ground that he was tied up by this injunction. On the trial of the case below the action was dismissed on account of fack of the certificate. The ground of appeal was that this certificate was not necessary, and of course the argument was a strictly technical and legal one. As in the previous case, the Court took the papers.

John De Wint Hook, executor of the estate of the late John Peter De Wint, brings suit against the Church street extension. An award was given for the value of the lot, and the building left for the symers to remove or dispose of as they pleased, it not having been removed when its demolition became necessary, the city directed its sale at auction, and the same was sold for $1,500. It is now claimed that the property was worth $15,000, and sait is brought to recover this sum. The defence is that the building was sold for all it was worth. Case still on. The trial of the case began yesterday, in Supreme Court, Circuit, before Judge Lawrence. to per cent of the contract price, has already been Before Judge Van Brunt, Francis Graves, as stockholder of the fl. A. Yonge & Co. corporation, charges Henry A. Yonge, president of the company, with converting to his own use the funds of the company. thereby causing a depreciation of $3,000 in his stock. Suit was brought to cover this alleged oss. Defendant demurred on the ground that it was necessary to make the corporation a party to the action. The Court neld the demurrer to be well taken, and ordered a judgment for the defendant.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, PLEAS OF GUILTY AND SENTENCES. Before Judge Barrett.

The only business transacted in this Court yesterday was accepting pleas of guilty and passing septences. Pirst in the list was Louis Klopsch, against whom were three indictments for forgery in the third degree. Mr. William P. Kintzing, the in the third degree. Mr. William P. Kintzing, the prisoner's counsel, succeeded in getting the Court to accept a pies of guilty of lorgery in the fourth degree, thus saving him several years in State Pilson additional to two years, which was the sentence imposed. John McCullough, indicted for burgiary, pleaded guilty of an attempt, and was sentenced for two years to State Prison. Peter Liojd pleaded guilty of assault and pattery, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year.

PLEADED GUILTY.

Frank Gilmore, a youth, who was charged with stealing two pieces of coth, valued at $60. from the store of Robert Englemann, No. 143 Waverley place, pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny. He was sent to the State Prison for one year. Alfred Winder, a colored man, pleaded guilty to petit larceny, the allegation being that on the 1st of this month he stole five shirts, the property of Edward Holland. The sentence was imprisonment in the Penitentiary for six months.

TOMBS POLICE COURT. Before Judge Kilbreth. A SHOPLIFTER CAUGHT.

Marie Pierson, an account of whose arrest ap peared in vesterday's HERALD, was arraigned at this court yesterday alternoon on a charge o shoplitting. The offence was committed in Stewart's Tenth street store on Saturday after noon, the property stolen being valued at $25 50, and consisting of one dozen silk handkerchiefs. The prisoner was held in default of $1,000 ball to answer.

A BOLD HOTEL THIEF. Abraham Levering made complaint against Wilham H. Brown, whom he charged with having, on the 24th inst., stolen from him property to the value of $558. Mr. Levering, it appears, was a lodger in room 43, St. Nicholas Hotel, and Mr. Brown on the day mentioned took possession room 47 on the same corridor. That night Mr. Levering left his room to go to the theatre, and when he returned the following articles were missing—to wit:—Five shirts, a pair of pants, four pairs of stockings, five handkerchiefs, ten collars, three pairs of sid cloves, a pair of silpiers, a value, two $50 United States notes and two checks of $100 cach, payable to bearer. The hotel proprietors were informed of the loss, and Officer Rodgers, of the special squad, was taken in to work up the case. He suspected the lodger in foom 47, and accordingly, when that gentleman left his quarters yesterday morning, a search was made which confirmed the suspecton. In room 47 were found at the articles just enumerated except the bank notes and drafts. When brought to court yesterday afternoon Mr. Brown declared that he was too ill to be subjected to imprisonment; but, as he could not brovide $2,000 bail, the Court, although not a physician, begged leave to differ, and Mr. Brown went below.

PICKED HIS POCKET. William H. Feeling, a resident of Albany and a canal boatman, who is the fortunate owner of one of those queer looking but roving craft, appeared in court to prefer a charge of largeny against James Gurnsey, a resident of Syracuse and a rallroad engineer. The story of the comp lainant was that he had been rudely and cruelly deceived by the prisoner, whom he had taken to be a friend the prisoner, whom he had taken to be a friend and not a thief. The pair met at a tavern in Greenwich street, and, being impressed with each other's appearance, they sallied out together for a spree, or went on a benner, as Feeling expressed it. Being in a saloon they drank amicably together, and then Gurasoy expressed sorrow at being unable to "call the crowd," he being, as hicawber would say "doored," Feeling feit a compassion for his new friend's generous institutes and announced that he would do all the "calling," for he had pienty of money to do it with, at the same time exhibiting the sum of $75. This was a bad move for Feeling, for ne soon lost sight of his cash; hence his complaint. The conversation turning on seignt-o-hand tricks and betting devices, Gurnsey intimated that he was a mesmerist, and expressed the behaf that he was a mesmerist, and expressed the behaf that he was a mesmerist, and expressed the behaf that he was a mesmerist, and expressed to being placed in proper position. He did not becen placed in proper position. He did not see heaven, however, nor has he had a gimpse of his money either. The Judge histened to the story with apparent interest, and manifested his sympathy with the cannot owner by sending the engineer down stairs for trial. If the charge against him is true railroad matters with not interest him for some time. and not a thief. The pair met at a tavern

ESSEX MARKET POLICE COURT. Before Judge Sherwood. A DISHONEST BOOKKEEPER.

Leo Witkoski, a bookkeeper in the employ of Lipman, Brown & Co., No. 8 Walker street, was yesterday accused by Mr. Harris Brown, a member of the firm, of stealing $57 on the 14th of January. Mr. Brown stated that on that day he saw Wit koski put his hand in a drawer where the money had been placed, and on Witkoski noticing that Mr. Brown's attention was attracted to his move-ments he immediately ran away. After his de-parture the money was discovered to be missing. Witkoski was held in $1,000 bail to answer.

THE POLICY RAID.

Thomas Birmingham, of No. 62 East Broadway, preferred a complaint against George Stumpff, of No. 75 Gouvernear street, charging him with selling lottery policies. Stumpff, who had been arrested by Officer Wood, of the Seventh precinct, was neld in $500 ball to answer the charge at General Sessions.

THE FERRY CROSSINGS.

INTERBUPTIONS TO TRAVEL ON THE RIVERS VESTERDAY NOT OF A SERIOUS CHARACTER. Broad cakes of ice floated up the East River on flood tide of Tuesday night and choked the stream so thoroughly that navigation was closed for a time below Roosevelt street so that there were no crossings made for several hours. During the blockade two or three venture ome men walked over the temporary bridge, so it is reported, and arrived safely on the Brooklyn shore. When the tire changed this compact field was carried down toward the lower bay, and in the flood tide of yesterday morning there were large quantities of the old ice brought back, but so broken into fragments as to do but little harm.

As has been the case every day since the ice made its appearance, the tugs that early steam up and down the rivers crushed many of the larger pieces and made the way or the ferryboats much less difficult, as when there are no sold fields to encounter these vesses get along quite fairly and make their trips in comparative regularity. It has been demonstrated repeatedly that the propeller is by all odds the better kind of craft to contend with the ice. Winter after winter it has been observed that they can crush through fields of this form:dable obstruction without being injured, and where a sidewheel boat would be jured, and where a sidewheel hoat would be powerless to move. An instance of this character is given where the nttle propelier bay Rioge a day of two since, running to the piace of that name on Long island, steamed through a dense mass of ice cown near fort hampton that would have been impassible for the largest of the sidewneel boats that piy on the several ferries.

Although the last fiver was filled with floating hummores most of it had, borne the buffetings of the tury and other craits, and was not in sufficiently dense mass to seriously interiere with navigation on the several ferries. At the Futton lerry they can the lour regular boats on schedule time, though occasional ceaps were experienced on the Brooklyn shore, where the northward and westerly wind have carried much of the floating mass, packing it into the ships.

on the Brooklyn shore, where the northward and westerly wind have carried much of the floating mass, packing it into the shys.

At the Wall street lerry they succeeded in making their trips from the early morning unit between ten and eleven o'clock with commendation promptness. But between the latter heads there was a herious embarassment on the Brooklyn side, the feet there being in such quantities as to preclude the possibility of reaching the Montague street sho. The pilots made desperate efforts to crush through the obstruction, but it was mily forty minutes before it yielded to the terrible assaults of the boats somersed and Clinton. Once separated and a channel made it was kept open during the rest of the day, and the patrons of the lerry were not afterward delayed.

Much the same state of affairs existed at the fourh and Hamitten avenue terries. The strong flood tice which runs through Buttermik Channel like a mill face caught much of the neavier and larger pieces of ice and jammed them completely together in the course of these boats, causing much detention. The obstruction was carried by storm, however, by the same methods which cleared the Wall street route, and from eleven o'clock or shortly after, there was but little trouble experienced on these extensively patronized lerries.

Both of the Staten Island companies ran their experienced on these extensively patronized ierries.

Both of the Staten island companies ran their boats with great regularity. The stormy winds that have carried the ice toward the Brooklyn shore, have been a great reiler to these ierrica, giving them a comparatively clear channel through which the pilots pick their way. For a week or more there has been posted at the old staten island ierry the following notice:—"Night trus omitted on account of the ice in the day. Boats will leave as follows every hour—Staten Island, from Ca. M. to 7 P. M.; New York, from 7 A. M. to 8. P. M.

The men on outly at the Cortiandt, Liberty and Barcialy street ierries companied but little yearer-

A. M. to S. P. M.

The men on outy at the Cortlandt, Liberty and Barciay street terries complained but little yesterday of being troubled by the ice. Delays were slight in the morning by the accumulation of cakes on the New York shore, but the sob tide removed much of it, and during the alternoon the only inconvenience resulted from the efforts occasionally required to force the boats into the supstirrough the mass which found lodegment there.

The Morrisaula and Hariem boats made their regular trips, but the floating ice encountered all the way up the river necessitated a slower rate of speed than is usual with these fleet side wheels.

Great exertions are being made by the Lighthouse board of the district to replace the can and spar buoys carred to sea by the heavy ice. In a short time these important marks to the channel to and from the Atlantic will again be in their old positions.

The system of running the ferryboats from to and from the Atlantic will again be in their old positions.

The system of running the ferryboats from Jersey City to Cortlandt street for the past lew weeks is a source of great annoyance and disappointment to passeugers. Previously, the boars made trips every ten or twelve minutes up to ten o'clock at night, then every fitteen minutes up to twelve, then every half-sour till four in the morning. Now passengers have to wait from fifteen minutes to eight until fitteen minutes past eight. This has become a standing rule, and is not due to the ice or impediments of any kind.
